The mold & die journal – short characteristics

In modern industrial societies mold making factories belong to the most important sectors of the metal processing industry. Latest information about all kinds of new developments, new patents, proven form designs, standards, as well as progress in the materials technology and the remarkable developments in the field of information technology are therefore indispensable for mold makers.

All of these topics are regularly covered in the journal
- The mold & die journal.

The print edition of the Journal of
The mold & die journal is 3.500 copies and IVW is checked.

General Terms and Conditions of The Publisher

1. Orders covering the publication of advertisements (including supplements and inserts) are to be settled within one year after contract conclusion. If the Advertiser is entitled, within the contract frame, to call up individual advertisements the order must be settled within one year after publication of the first advertisement; the first advertisement is to be published within the period specified at the beginning.
2. The Advertiser shall be responsible for timely submission of the advertisement text as well as for timely and free delivery of supplements/inserts and take care the printing documents are flawless and complete. Should the material supplied be unsuitable or damaged, the Publisher will immediately request replacement. Costs incurred for the production of offset films by the Publisher will be passed on to the Advertiser at the cost price. The Publisher guarantees the printing quality customary for the designated publication, within the limits set by the printing documents.
3. The Publisher shall take over and examine the advertisement texts with due care and diligence, but shall not be liable if he is misled or deceived by the Advertisers. The Advertiser shall be liable for any and all ramifications and damages arising to the Publishing House from the advertisement contents, particularly due to press and media legal provisions.
4. In case of box number advertisements, the Publisher shall employ the diligence of a prudent businessman for offer keeping and timely forwarding. Further liability shall not be assumed.
5. Advertisements that cannot clearly be identified as such due to their design shall be marked by the Publisher with the word "advertisement".
6. The publisher reserves the right to refuse advertisement orders - also individual call-offs within the total frame - on grounds relating to their contents, origin or technical design in accordance with the Publishers uniform principles. The Advertiser shall be informed by the Publisher immediately upon rejection of an order. Orders covering supplements/inserts shall become valid only after a sample will have been submitted and approved.
7. If an order is not fully complied with due to circumstances the Publisher is not responsible for, the unjustly granted higher discount shall be debited to the Advertiser afterwards. Should the Advertiser extend the order volume within one year from publication of the first advertisement, he will be granted the higher discount plus an applicable repayment for the advertisements published within the period in question.
8. In the events of strike and force majeure any obligation for order fulfillment and compensation for damages shall be waived; same shall apply to advertisements that may not be published at all or too late.
9. Proofs shall only be submitted upon explicit request. The Advertiser shall be responsible for the correctness of the returned proofs. Should the Advertiser not return the proof on time this shall be deemed to constitute approval for printing. Costs for considerable modifications to the originally agreed version and for the production of ordered films, retouchings and drawings shall be borne by the Advertiser.
10. If the printed advertisement is completely or partially illegible or incorrect or the print is incomplete, the Advertiser shall be entitled to demand a price reduction or a correct substitute ad, but only to the extent the purpose of the advertisement has been impaired. Further liability of the Publisher shall be excluded. Claims must be made within four weeks from receipt of the invoices and supporting documents. The publisher shall not be liable for errors arising from communication by telephone.
11. The invoice must be paid within the period specified in the price list starting from the date of receipt of the invoice, unless a shorter period or prepayment has been agreed between the parties for the particular order. In case of delayed payment, the Publisher shall be entitled to stop further performance of the contract until payment and claim prepayment for the remaining advertisements. No discount shall be granted in the events of bankruptcy and foreclosure.
12. Printing documents (films, final drawings, etc.) shall only be returned to the Advertiser upon special request. The obligation to store all documents shall terminate three months after expiry of the contract.
13. The place of fulfillment shall be the registered office of the Publisher, the court of jurisdiction also the place of the Publisher unless law mandatorily provides otherwise. For dunning procedures and in case the registered address or usual residence should be unknown at the time an action is filed, the court of jurisdiction shall be the registered office of the Publisher.
